the smog:
A 'roznamcha' of
ride-sourcing
bike taxis

This comic strip is based on an interview with a bike-taxi worker on a ride-sourcing digital labor platform. Prior to its creation, informed consent was obtained from the participant.

In the thick of hazardous air & choking pollution, a middle-aged Delhi man continues his ride-sourcing bike-taxi work.

Join us as we ride alongside him, glimpsing the city and its technologies through his eyes, navigating through the haze, and piercing the low visibility to witness his life struggles.

It is on the workers the city stands and runs.

If anything concerns the city,
it concerns the worker.

..... reminding us environmental problems are also labour issues!
